HOSTED BY: WISCONSIN BREAST CANCER COALITION

Breast cancer survivors and advocates are invited to register for an informal lunch meeting at the Pfister Hotel immediately following the morning science program "Fifth Annual Wisconsin Review of the San Antonio Breast Cancer Symposium".

The morning science program is hosted by Wisconsin Association of Hematology and Oncology in collaboration with the Carbone Cancer Center, University of Wisconsin and the Medical College of Wisconsin.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This lunch discussion meeting is for breast cancer survivors and advocates who are registered for and attend the morning science session. Complimentary but required registration for the morning science session is now available at www.waho-wisconsin.com under the "Meetings" tab.

ABOUT THE ADVOCATE REVIEW MEETING:

This short interactive lunch meeting affords the opportunity for survivors and advocates to come together as a small group for an informal discussion of the morning science session, including highlights and take home message from each presentation. In addition, advocates will have the opportunity to ask questions related to the science topics and to network.

COST: There is no cost to attend the Survivor/Advocate Lunch Meeting.

REGISTRATION (please register separately for both the morning session and Advocate lunch meeting)

1. Register for the morning science session *at www.waho-wisconsin.com

*2. Registration for the Survivor/Advocate Review Meeting and Lunch is required and is now available at www.wi-breastcancersymposium.com.
Space is limited to the first 20 registrants, and we will maintain a waitlist.

QUESTIONS: Please contact Kathleen Harris (kathleenharris2020@gmail.com).
